

July 14, 2003

DLIS FACULTY NEWS

DLIS Faculty Newsletter
Katie Yelinek and Michele
Tourney, Editors

Please send submissions to:
facnews@mail.sis.pitt.edu

Please CC :
jweaver@mail.sis.pitt.edu

Richard J. Cox published "Does Strategic Information Management Have ARMs?" Records & Information Management Report 18 (September 2002): 1-13; "History and Records Management," Records & Information Management Report 18 (September 2002): 14-16 [review essay]; "Reaching Out and Taking Cover," Records & Information Management Report 18 (October 2002): 15-16 [review essay]; "Legal and Practical Solutions for Electronic Records Management," Records & Information Management Report 18 (November 2002): 15-16 [review essay]; "Who Are We? Who Knows What We Are? Some Thoughts on the Continuing Debate About Credentials and Professional Identity," Records & Information Management Report 18 (December 2002): 1-14; and "Getting It Right," Records & Information Management Report 18 (December 2002): 15-16.

Richard Cox attended the annual meeting of the Association of Canadian Archivists, June 11-14, 2003, Toronto, Canada, delivering plenary address, "Searching for Archival Knowledge: The Revolution in North American Archival Publishing in the 20th Century" and taught Association of Canadian Archivists annual Institute, "Archives in Society, Society in Archives," June 16-18, Toronto, Canada.

Richard J. Cox Published "Map Thefts, Library Security, Collecting, and Me: A Review of Harvey's The Island of Lost Maps," Library & Archival Security 17, n2. (2001): 45-58 [despite the date this appeared in June 2003].

Richard Cox Published a review of Gary Edgerton, "Ken Burns' America" in The Moving Image 3, no. 1 (2003), 190-192.

Student and Alumni News

Yale Fineman, MLIS alumna, has assumed duties as the music librarian/head of reference and circulation at the University of Maryland/College Park's Michelle Smith Performing Arts Library.

Claudia Gollop, Ph.D. alumna and associate professor at the School of Information and Library Science at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, recently received a grant supplement from the National Institute of Nursing Research/National Institutes of Health to continue research on a project entitled "Analytic Techniques for Qualitative Metasynthesis." For more information on the project, visit http://nursing.unc.edu/research/current/qualitative_metasynthesis.html. Gollop has also worked to establish a distance education program at UNC-Chapel Hill, teaching the on-line courses Health Science Information and Consumer Health Information.

Yushiana Mansor, PH.D. alumna, published “Bibliographic Exchange in Malaysia: Variations in Name Headings” in Library Review 52 (1): 38-42 (2003).

Jody A. Wozar, MLIS alumna, published in conjunction with Paul C. Worona “The Use of Online Information Resources by Nurses” in The Journal of the Medical Library Association 91 (2): 216-221 (April 2003).

Knowledge is of two kinds. We know a subject ourselves, or we know where we can find information upon it.

- Samuel Johnson

