

Training in Ethics and Professional Development

Beth A. Fischer, PhD
Visiting Assistant Professor
bfischer@pitt.edu

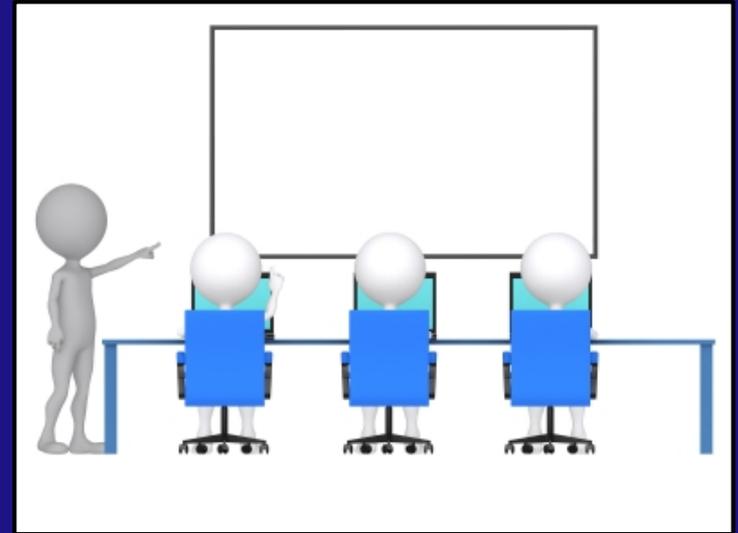

Activities

- Within SIS
- National
- International

Effective Instruction

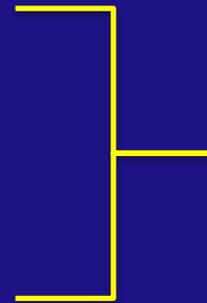

- Repeated exposure
- Provided over time
- In context
 - Discipline
 - Professional development
- Involving faculty in the discipline
- Preparing for current & future issues

4 Components of Ethical Behavior

James Rest & Muriel Bebeau

1. Sensitivity
2. Reasoning
3. Motivation
4. Willpower

Case studies

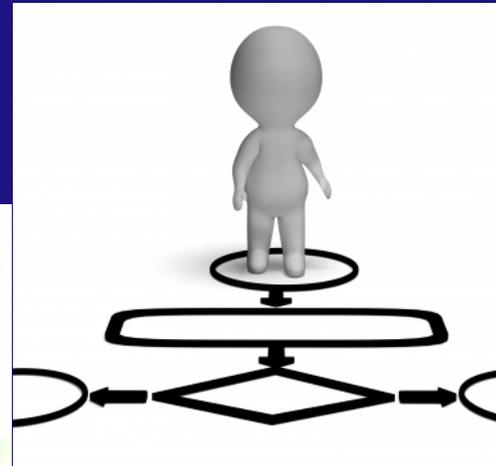

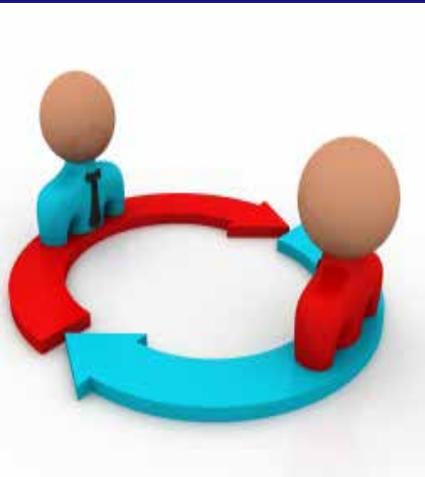

Role playing

"Moral" Reasoning

Muriel Bebeau

1. Cause of conflict (opposing obligations, needs)
2. Individuals affected
3. Possible actions
4. Likely outcomes

Within SIS

- Work with faculty
- ID Issues
- ID/develop cases
- Aid in implementation

Capacity Building

Training the Trainers - U.S.*

Current

- NSF-funded
- Collab. w/ AAAS
- 3.5 d workshop
- All research-oriented disciplines

Focus

- Disseminate curric.
- Exchange ideas
- Build network

* w/ M.Zigmond (Pitt)

Capacity Building

Training the Trainers - China*

- NIH/FIC-funded (5 yr)
- Possible support from Chinese Acad. Sci.
- Develop ethics expertise (esp. bioethics)
- 15-30 participants from across China

* w/ M.Zigmond (Pitt)