

PLANNING YOUR PROGRAM: HEALTH RESOURCES & SERVICES
University of Pittsburgh
Library and Information Science Program

MLIS CORE REQUIREMENTS (12 CREDITS)	TERM REGISTERED
--	------------------------

Students interested in working in medical libraries will take the four required courses in the MLIS degree.

LIS 2000	Understanding Information	_____
LIS 2005	Organizing & Retrieving Information	_____
LIS 2600	Introduction to Information Technology	_____
LIS 2700	Managing Libraries & Information Centers in Changing Environments	_____

OTHER REQUIRED COURSES (9 CREDITS)	TERM REGISTERED
---	------------------------

LIS 2585	Health Consumer Resources & Services	(suggested) Spring _____
LIS 2586	Health Sciences Resources & Services	(suggested) Fall _____
LIS 2587	Applications in Medical Informatics	(suggested) Spring _____

ELECTIVES (15 CREDITS)	TERM REGISTERED
-------------------------------	------------------------

Suggested electives for students interested in working in medical libraries. Please note that electives are generally offered once per year. Some electives have prerequisites:

LIS 2921	Field Placement (especially for students not in the Partner's Program or lacking medical library experience – prereqs: LIS 2000, 2005, 2600, 2700)	(suggested) Summer _____
LIS 2537	Government Information (prereq: LIS 2005)	_____
LIS 2670	Digital Libraries (prereq: LIS 2600)	_____
LIS 2635	Information Architecture (prereq: LIS 2600)	_____
LIS 2850	Library Instruction	_____
LIS 2545	Science and Technology Resources (prereq: LIS 2005)	_____
LIS 2970	Special Topics: Information Resources, Services & Technology for an Aging World (when available)	_____

Students may choose beyond this list, from a wide array of courses in resources, services, management, and technology.

TOTAL CREDITS REQUIRED FOR GRADUATION	36 CREDITS
--	-------------------